1.1 Benefits:

- a) Time flexibility - you can perform Internet tasks at any time, anywhere and on any device with Internet access! You choose the task you want to complete - depending on the type of challenge, it may be a matter of a few minutes or even a few weeks. In theory, the more time you need to complete a task, the more you will be paid. Rates for completed actions range from several dozen groszy to even several hundred zlotys! We will soon return to the issue of earnings.
- b) Availability of offers - performing tasks online gives you great freedom to choose the type of activities you want to perform. Regardless of where you are, you can perform the tasks of your choice. Are you on break at school? Do you take the bus to work? Are you going on holiday by train? Each of these places is suitable for earning additional rewards!
- c) No investment - to start your adventure with making money online, all you need is a device with Internet access and some free time. You don't have to spend money on paid training - everything is so simple that you can handle it without any problems. Access to platforms and services is free - you don't have to pay for access to premium accounts or other hidden fees. Everything is completely free! Your only costs are the Internet, time and energy needed to charge your device.
- d) Variety of methods - on the Internet we can find a lot of different types of activities for which we will receive remuneration. In this guide, I will discuss 4 examples of such tasks. You can do any of them or choose the ones you like the most. You will surely find something for yourself. You will find a more detailed discussion of each method later in this ebook.

- e) Various forms of withdrawals - each website has its own policy of paying out/issuing prizes, but each of them has a large selection of prizes available. Gift cards, withdrawals to your bank account or payment processor, virtual in-game currencies, virtual payment cards, game codes, vouchers and much more!
- f) Additional resources - completing tasks online allows you to gain additional benefits in a nice and pleasant way. If you take the right actions, you can get cool amounts and rewards. Remember that it's not a job - you won't earn your living, but an extra few hundred a month sounds nice, right?

1.2. How is it working?

Websites offering rewards for completing tasks operate as an intermediary between companies looking to complete specific tasks and users ready to perform them in exchange for remuneration. Below are the key elements of operation of such services:

1. Account registration - to gain access to tasks, simply register a user account. It's extremely simple and you'll definitely be able to do it.
2. The next step is to familiarize yourself with the appearance and functionality of the website. Within a few minutes you should be able to find the right tabs, account and payout settings, and available tasks. Each website looks slightly different, so it's worth spending a few minutes getting to know the new platform.
3. Find the right task to complete, check the requirements, details, completion rate and maximum time to complete the task. Some activities will take a few minutes, others much longer. Check if you will be able to complete the task within the limited time.
4. After completing the task, you will receive appropriate remuneration, which will increase the balance of your account on the platform. Depending on the site and the amount you manage to earn, you can choose a reward or complete subsequent tasks to obtain the minimum amount to withdraw.
5. Some tasks are rewarded automatically - moments after completion. Others, on the other hand, require a bit longer time. Check the details of the offer and if you feel that the reward should be awarded, you can use technical support.

2. Recommended services and methods:

In this guide, I will present you 4 methods and 6 online platforms that will help you start your adventure with earning money online.

2.1. Methods:

1. Completing surveys - research centers regularly conduct market research on their products, advertisements, offers and much more. Each survey has a limited number of respondents, as well as requirements for potential people who will receive access to the survey. In most cases, before completing the survey, you will receive a few questions based on which the system will assess whether you fit the profile and you will receive access to the rest of the study. Each survey specifies the rate and time needed to complete it. Avoid those that take too much time and offer too low a rate - it's a waste of your time. Choose only those that will meet your expectations.
2. Performing tasks in games - in my opinion, this is the most enjoyable type of earning activity. This method involves achieving specific tasks in a selected game. These activities usually include reaching a certain level in a given game, completing a mission, obtaining an item, or unlocking a chapter. More and more games offer the opportunity to win many prizes - depending on our achievements. Beware of games that require too much time (e.g. reaching level 1000) or offer rewards for items purchased with real money.
3. Application testing - some websites offer remuneration for testing or checking the operation of a given game, application, website or product. Examples include taking advantage of the trial period, installing and activating the application, or using a free trial. Beware of offers that require you to provide too sensitive personal data or a payment card.
4. Performing tasks and simple activities - paid tasks for which we can receive remuneration may include clicking on a link, spending a specific time on the website, watching a video, registering an account on the website, following an account on social media or leaving a like under a photo. Many jobs have low stakes but require minimal time and effort. It is worth checking the offer regularly, because sometimes there are tasks for really high rates.

2.2. Recommended websites:

1. ySense - one of the most popular websites offering remuneration for performing tasks. The platform's offer includes surveys, games and applications, as well as small tasks.
